

FIREGROUND LEADERSHIP

International Civil Aviation
Organization (ICAO) Course
Number: 119

Target Group:
Fire Service Officers.

Duration:
40 hours - 1 week

Fees:
US $ 285 for tuition and training materials only

OBJECTIVES

To hone the leadership skills of operational supervisors who will be involved in rescue and fire-fighting duties. Participants will also learn to consolidate command and communication skills of middle supervisors in managing challenging situations at the fire scene in both aviation and structural fire scenarios.

OUTLINE

Theory

Command and Responsibilities at the Fireground

- o Overview of the incident command system
- o Setting up of crisis management team
- o Fireground command and communication
- o Fireground strategy and tactics
- o Fire service leadership

Practical

On-site Command, Coordination and Communications Exercise

- o On-scene command and control
- o Radio communications exercise
- o Case study

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Be certified medically and physically fit

Proficient in the English language

Be in the supervisory position for at least one year

Have completed the Advanced Airport Fire-fighter course or its equivalent

Be competent to don and operate the Breathing Apparatus set

---